

SANTA BARBARA WOMEN'S GOLF CLUB
GENERAL MEETING
FEBRUARY 3, 2010

The meeting was called to order by President Jackie Ewing at 2:15 at Mulligan's.

Paula Nelson moved that we dispense with the reading of the minutes. The motion was seconded.

Tournament Chair Paula Nelson said that she needs hostesses for the months of April, May and June. She also reminded everyone that for tournaments that run more than one week, the money will be collected for every week of the tournament from all participants on the first day of the tournament.

Handicap Chair Judy Borrell asked if everyone had logged onto the GHIN.com website and registered online. GHIN will automatically send the registered users their index on the 1st and the 15th of every month. Judy said she does not know if the Pub Links tournaments will require the players to bring a copy of their index or if the tournament director will look them up on-line. Judy said that the Women's Club will use the latest index for any major tournaments we have. Brigitte Laimboeck was the Most Improved Player for January. She will receive a $12 credit for the pro shop.

Membership Chair Carolyn Nielsen asked the membership if they had received their 2010 Member Directory. Anyone who needed the Directory should contact her. She introduced two new members, Barbara Rose and Morgan Green.

Social Chair Anne Wunsch announced the winners for the "newest grandmother" and the "newest great-grandmother". The "newest grandmother" award went to Anne Wood. The "newest great-grandmother" award was awarded to Joyce Metz. Each of the winners received a bouquet of flowers.

Parks Liaison Mo Masson asked who would be interested in touring the new additions to the golf course with Mark Reed,

Golf Course Manager, and a representative from the Creek Commission. She said that a possible date may be after golf on Wednesday February 17th. She is interested to find out what will be the solution to the drainage problem at the bottom of hole #17. Bev Shames asked if there was going to be a forward tee box on hole #16. Mo said she does not know at this time.

Pub Links chair Donna Dishman said Judy Borrell, Kay Sharpe, Susan Trenchel and herself will be attending a Pub Links meeting in Alhambra on Friday February 5th. She said that the Pub Links tournaments are posted on the restroom bulletin board.

Kay Sharpe ran the 50/50 raffle drawing. Fifty percent of the money will be going into Team Play funds and the other fifty percent is given as prizes. The first place winner of $40 was Carolyn Nielsen, second place for $30 was Lynn Kirby, and third place for $15 was Judy Porter.

Linda Baumann thanked everyone for attending the tournament and luncheon and announced the winners. Patti Shaw was the "Grandmother of the Year" with a 68 low net score. She received a $36 credit for the pro-shop. Runner-up low net was Jan Kelleway with a score of 70. She received a pro-shop credit of $18. Low Gross winner was Mo Masson with a score of 92. She received a pro-shop credit of $18.

The next board meeting will be on March 17th. The next General Meeting will be in June.

The meeting was adjourned at 2:35.
